Boston March 29th Wednesday

Dear Caroline

You see by the annexed the necessity of your being in town almost immediately, to finish off the Diorama, collect Mrs. Loring, who wishes to go, & do the various little needful things, which your having packed the goods in the cellar, marks you as the fittest person to do. I wrote to H. Bedford, but they have nothing to send. I have just written to Dedham, & have sent an advertisement to the Liberator, & an approximative & confirmative letter to Levy. I named Tuesday & Wednesday to him as the best days, but I suppose he cannot get the hall on that time. I should not have chosen to be bothered with Fast. But perhaps it will be as good a time as any to put the things in order while the folks are in church, & let them pour in as they go home. & thus have been there one night. I have called it a Sale as there will not be a complete assortment of any thing & one can only hope, at the utmost, to pay off Mr. Bradlee the Binder & Mr Child — in all I suppose $350.

I have just written to Concord & Hingham also

Dr Madam.

I have ascertained that we can have Chapel Hall in Wymans Exchange building Cor. of Merrimac & Central Streets, for an Anti Slavery fair on Thursday & Friday next week (days & evenings) of the 6th & 7th April. I have Consulted some about holding it on Fast-day evening & find that there seems to be no impropriety in it but rather that it would be one of the best evenings we could have — Should you conclude to come up at that time please send me notice to be published this week —

I cannot know whether we can have the City Hall for a discussion before the 10th & 11th or not & I have therefore thot best to have the fair previous — We had a discussion last Thursday eveng & adjourned to next Thursday eveng —

Resp'y Yours

John Levy
